

The Weill Cornell Imaging at NewYork-Presbyterian Cloud, powered by Ambra, is our cloud-based imaging sharing platform that allows physicians and providers to access finalized reports and view images faster and more efficiently than ever before. Thanks to this new diagnostic viewer, imaging can be accessed securely anytime, anywhere.

Please review the guide below on how to set-up an account, log in, view, download and share studies in the cloud. For any technical questions or concerns, please contact Ambra support directly at 888.315.0790. For all other issues or to be connected with your dedicated Radiology Services Liaison, please call 212.746.6000.
